OverviewDesignLithium-ion comparisonChallengesResearchSee alsoExternal linksAluminium-ion batteries are a class of rechargeable battery in which aluminium ions serve as charge carriers. Aluminium can exchange three electrons per ion. This means that insertion of one Al is equivalent to three Li ions. Thus, since the ionic radii of Al (0.54 Å) and Li (0.76 Å) are similar, significantly higher numbers of electrons and Al ions can be accepted by cathodes with little damage. Al has 50 times (23.5 megawatt-hours m the energy density of Li and is even higher th...

Currently, China is home to six of the world's 10 biggest battery makers inas battery dominance is driven by its vertical integration across the entire EV supply chain, from mining metals to producing EVs.
